Dear Reverend Richardson:

This letter is in reply to your letter to the Attorney General dated December 6, 1962.

The incidents mentioned in your letter have been investigated. Where our investigation indicates that there has been a clear violation of federal law, those guilty of violating any federal law will be prosecuted.

Action by the Department of Justice in Albany, like in any other place, must have as a basis a probable violation of federal law. Our responsibility is to act only where we have a legal authority to do so. The Federal Government should not prosecute any civil or criminal action unless after an independent investigation, it is clear that there is probable cause to believe a federal law has been violated.

At the present time there is pending in federal court in Albany certain cases in which leading members of the Albany Movement are parties and which involve the basic segregation issues in the community. There is no question but that when the federal courts take final action on the "Albany Movement" cases now pending, the constitutional rights of all Albany citizens will be fully protected. This will be in keeping with the processes of our legal system, which sometimes works slowly, but through which the law is finally preserved.

Sincerely,

BURKE MARSHALL

Dear Mr. King:

Your letter of December 26, 1962, to the President has been referred to this Department.

Our file reflects that we wrote you on July 26, 1962, advising that we had ordered an investigation into the alleged attack upon your wife by law enforcement officers at Camilla, Georgia.

After a careful review of the facts, as disclosed by the investigation, we concluded that the evidence is insufficient to sustain a prosecution under federal law. Accordingly, we are unable to take any action in this matter.

Sincerely,

Pres to Justice

December 26, 1962

President John F. Kennedy
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

I am writing to you because I feel that my wife's inhuman treatment is not an isolated case, but to thousands of Negroes in the heart of the Black Belt, it is symbolic of a system of lawlessness perpetrated by State Officials against Negroes. The action or inaction of the Federal Government in this case may have considerable import on future race relations in this area.

I wrote you in July concerning my wife but as yet I have received no reply.

To briefly restate what happened: My wife went down to Camilla jail to take food and clothing to some of the juveniles who were incarcerated in the Camilla County jail.

They had been arrested by the Albany Police Force. They were peacefully demonstrating against the denial to Negroes of constitutionally guaranteed rights.

The deputies in Camilla would not allow any clothing or food to be left. They also began to curse the Albanians very vehemently who had driven down to see the juveniles and requested that they leave the jail grounds immediately.

My wife was five months pregnant and because she did not run or walk as fast as the others, all of the venom of the Sheriff and the deputy was directed against her. She was knocked down by both of them, and was kicked once or twice on her buttocks while she lay on the ground unconscious, to this we have sworn testimony.

Last month the baby was born dead. My wife has given birth to three other children and never encountered any difficulty.

Our physician, Dr. J. L. Shirley, Jr., stated that he felt that the brutal attack was the major cause of the baby not living.

Many Negroes who have constantly watched this situation have asked me what action has the Federal Government taken. At this stage I can only reply, none.

Many have further stated that when and if such happens to them (and knowing the determination of the whites in this area to resist all social change, it is no doubt that it will occur again) that they will not rely on the F. B. I., or any other Federal Agency to take action. As I had previously stated to many of these Negro Citizens here, this incident concerning my wife is a symbol and actions taken or not taken by the Government bear very heavily upon future race relations in our area.

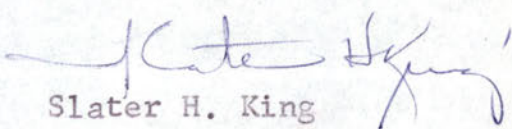

When decent, law abiding Negro Citizens who are leaders in their community are subjected to such flagrant abuse of their civil rights and The Federal Government sits by mute and withdrawn, the words of Democracy and Freedom should turn sour in our mouths.

For if such had happened to any white female, all Heaven nor hell, could have kept the cumulative Federal Agencies from working simultaneously to bring the guilty parties to trial.

Although a few whites try to fight the shameful legacy of America's treatment of its Negro Citizenry, by and far, the majority of the United States whites, no matter what positions they hold, have two standards for the application of the law, one for whites and one for Negroes. The treatment of my wife confirms this without a doubt.

In conclusion, I demand that the responsibility of your office express itself in bringing to justice the perpetrators of this injustice, and restore Negroes confidence in the Federal Government, which at this time is badly shaken.

Gentlemen:

In July of this year three incidents occurred in Georgia which to my knowledge were violations of civil liberties and have not to this time been adjusted to the needs of the parties injured.

On July 23, a pregnant non-demonstrating Negro woman named King was beaten into unconsciousness by sheriff's deputies outside the Albany courthouse. Several days later William Hansen, arrested for peaceful demonstrations and placed in the county jail, was given a beating by a trustee with the approval of the jailor and then refused medical treatment for his broken jaw. The last of the three occurred when a Negro attorney named C. B. King went to see Sheriff Cull Campbell of Dougherty County that same afternoon to check on Hansen's condition. Campbell ordered King out of his office. When King turned to tell him the reason for his presence, the sheriff took up a walking stick and broke it over King's head. Later Campbell admitted this beating.

All three incidents were reported to the FBI. Mr. Hoover writes me that the Bureau gave thorough and prompt attention to these reports. What action (based on the report I assume the FBI sent to your division) has the Justice Department taken in these cases?

Yours truly,

RACIAL SITUATION
ALBANY, GEORGIA

A review of the minutes of the November 1962 term of the Sumter County Grand Jury reflects that this grand jury passed the following resolution:

"We, the members of this grand jury, after being duly sworn and charged, and hearing testimony regarding the flagrant violation of good law enforcement and unethical practices of certain Agents of the FBI in and around Sumter County during the year 1962, do hereby condemn and abhor such practices. Such practices we feel are unjust to the people of our area and unnecessary in the honest and diligent enforcement of the laws of this state and of the United States. We hereby direct that a copy of this protest be furnished to the Director of the FBI, Mr. J. Edgar Hoover. We request that the Solicitor of this Court direct the Georgia Bureau of Investigation to prepare a report of detailed violations for submittal to the FBI."

CHARLES R. CRISP was listed as Secretary, and HORACE P. ODUM as Foreman of the grand jury.

On December 17, 1962, STEPHEN PACE, JR., Solicitor General, Southwest Circuit, State of Georgia, advised that his function with respect to local grand juries is solely that of a legal advisor, and he has no control over any action taken by local grand juries. PACE stated that he did not prepare legal terminology or wording of the resolution passed by the grand jury, and had nothing to do with this resolution, which criticized the FBI. PACE stated that when he first saw the resolution on November 30, 1962, he recommended that the grand jury not make it a matter of record without more specific information and testimony from witnesses.

PACE stated that he had no specific information concerning basis for the resolution, but recalled two grand jurors discussing rumors and hearsay information that one young man was interviewed by FBI Agents for several hours without his mother first being advised, and that FBI Agents were allegedly rude to Mrs. DAVENPORT of the Americus Credit Bureau. According to Mr. PACE, these alleged incidents occurred during the FBI investigation of church burnings and shootings into Negro homes in Lee and Terrell County, Georgia.

Mr. PACE stated that juror CHARLES CRISP, Vice President of the Commerce Bank, Americus, Georgia, and juror WILLIAM E. BLAIR, Assistant Publisher of "The Americus Newspaper", and newly elected state legislator, appeared to be the individuals spearheading the grand jury action. PACE stated that HORACE ODUM, Foreman of the grand jury, was also possibly involved. PACE further stated that CRISP and BLAIR were the two individuals believed by him to have been discussing the aforementioned rumors. PACE stated he was aware that two Special Agents of the FBI were present in the Sumter County Courthouse on November 30, 1962, when the grand jury was considering this resolution. PACE asked the grand jury if they desired to talk to these Special Agents concerning the rumors, and the grand jury declined.

In this connection, PHILLIP SIDNEY SMITH was interviewed by FBI Agents on October 2, and 4, 1962, in connection with the church burnings and shootings into Negro homes. SMITH, however, is an adult, and not a juvenile. He signed a waiver to be interviewed with the polygraph in this matter, and was so interviewed. His mother was aware that he was being interviewed.

Further, Mrs. G. M. DAVENPORT, Manager of the Credit Bureau of Americus, advised on December 17, 1962, that all of her associations with FBI Agents have been most cordial, and pleasant. She added that she has the highest regard for the FBI, and could make no complaint whatsoever concerning any FBI employee, and added that there has never been any incident where an FBI employee was rude to her.

Judge THOMAS O. MARSHAL of the Southwestern Circuit advised on December 17, 1962, that he was amazed at the resolution passed by the Sumter County Grand Jury, and he considered it improper. He added, however, that he has no control over grand jury action, and was not in a position to counteract this resolution since it may be interpreted as judicial interference with grand jury activity. Judge MARSHAL stated he has the highest regard for the FBI, and did not approve of this resolution.

RE: RACIAL SITUATION,
ALBANY, GEORGIA

CHARLES R. CRISP, Vice President, Bank of Commerce, Americus, Georgia, advised on December 18, 1962, that he did not approve of the Attorney General ordering the FBI to investigate the burning of Negro churches and shooting into Negro homes inasmuch as these matters are strictly local, and not Federal in nature. CRISP stated that in his opinion, and in the opinion of other white citizens in the South Georgia area, the Attorney General ordered these investigations for the sole purpose of obtaining the Negro vote, and the FBI was being used as an instrument by the Attorney General for political purposes. CRISP was informed of the general nature of the Civil Rights and Election Law Statutes, and FBI and Departmental jurisdiction was explained to him. CRISP stated that at the present time there is considerable feeling among practically all of the white citizens in South Georgia against the current wave of agitation by Negroes and Negro groups for desegregation. He stated that most of the white citizens are opposed to and resent interference of any type, and particularly any type of Federal assistance to Negroes. He stated this general feeling possibly prompted the grand jury to act on rumor and hearsay, which resulted in this resolution.

CRISP stated he knew of no specific allegations which would make a basis for the grand jury action, but there were rumors in the area from unknown persons to the effect that the FBI searched cars illegally, and went into persons houses looking for pistols. Mr. CRISP was informed that FBI Agents did not at any time search any automobiles, and one residence was searched for guns after the owner executed a Consent to Search.

CRISP added that he did not know the source of any of the rumors, adding that they were merely talk in the community. He then stated that he is of the opinion the grand jury might have acted in haste without full consideration of all facts, and the grand jury should not have acted solely on hearsay and unfounded rumor as it did. CRISP stated he would be in favor of the grand jury passing a new resolution rescinding the prior resolution.

RE: RACIAL SITUATION,
ALBANY, GEORGIA

HORACE P. ODUM, Superintendent, South Georgia Trade Schools, Americus, Georgia, and Foreman of the Sumter County Grand Jury, advised in connection with this resolution that he did not recall any specific allegations made against the FBI. He stated his function as Foreman was to receive all matters presented, which must be in writing, and he would vote on these matters only in the event of a tie. ODUM stated that he was certain that no witnesses testified before the grand jury concerning the FBI, and was now of the opinion the grand jury might have acted hastily in passing this resolution. He stated he did recall that juror WILLIAM E. BLAIR handed him the resolution, which criticized the FBI.

WILLIAM E. BLAIR, Assistant Publisher, Americus, Georgia "Times-Recorder", and newly elected State Legislator, advised on December 18, 1962, that he prepared and typed the resolution inasmuch as at that moment it reflected his feeling in this matter. He stated the basis for this feeling was the white citizens of South Georgia were being placed in a bad light from a world-wide standpoint because of the Department of Justice ordering the FBI to make extensive investigations of Negro church burnings and shootings into Negro houses for the purpose of obtaining the Negro vote. He stated that the white citizens in the South have been dealing with the Negroes for over one hundred years, and while he realizes it is necessary to concede additional rights to them, it is the responsibility of the South to handle these matters rather than the Federal Government. He also stated that it appears that a Negro can call a high government official in Washington and get an FBI investigation into controversial racial matters, and added that this is a source of continual annoyance to the white citizens.

Mr. BLAIR was informed of the jurisdiction of the Department of Justice and the FBI in these matters, and the general nature of the Civil Rights and Election Law Statutes. Mr. BLAIR stated that he had no specific information of any matter concerning flagrant violations or unethical practices of any FBI Agent other than what he stated above. He stated that the resolution was passed in extreme haste during the last confusing hours of the grand jury without any testimony from witnesses or without full consideration of grand jury members. He again stated that it was the general opinion of the white citizens of the area that the FBI should not investigate racial matters, but they should be left to local law enforcement.

RE: RACIAL SITUATION,

Mr. BLAIR stated he realizes the grand jury was in error, and he regrets being the instigator of the resolution. He stated he intends to immediately discuss this matter with grand jury foreman ODUM and juror CRISP. BLAIR was informed that it would be proper for him to take all possible action to correct the record. He stated he would do everything in his power to accomplish this.

A review of the minutes of the November 1962 term of the Sumter County Grand Jury reflects that this grand jury passed the following resolution:

"We, the members of this grand jury, after being duly sworn and charged, and hearing testimony regarding the flagrant violation of good law enforcement and unethical practices of certain Agents of the FBI in and around Sumter County during the year 1962, do hereby condemn and abhor such practices. Such practices we feel are unjust to the people of our area and unnecessary in the honest and diligent enforcement of the laws of this state and of the United States. We hereby direct that a copy of this protest be furnished to the Director of the FBI, Mr. J. Edgar Hoover. We request that the Solicitor of this Court direct the Georgia Bureau of Investigation to prepare a report of detailed violations for submittal to the FBI."

CHARLES R. CRISP was listed as Secretary, and HORACE P. ODUM as Foreman of the grand jury.

On December 17, 1962, STEPHEN PACE, JR., Solicitor General, Southwest Circuit, State of Georgia, advised that his function with respect to local grand juries is solely that of a legal advisor, and he has no control over any action taken by local grand juries. PACE stated that he did not prepare legal terminology or wording of the resolution passed by the grand jury, and had nothing to do with this resolution, which criticized the FBI. PACE stated that when he first saw the resolution on November 30, 1962, he recommended that the grand jury not make it a matter of record without more specific information and testimony from witnesses.

PACE stated that he had no specific information concerning basis for the resolution, but recalled two grand jurors discussing rumors and hearsay information that one young man was interviewed by FBI Agents for several hours without his mother first being advised, and that FBI Agents were allegedly rude to Mrs. DAVENPORT of the Americus Credit Bureau. According to Mr. PACE, these alleged incidents occurred during the FBI investigation of church burnings and shootings into Negro homes in Lee and Terrell County, Georgia.

Mr. PACE stated that juror CHARLES CRISP, Vice President of the Commerce Bank, Americus, Georgia, and juror WILLIAM E. BLAIR, Assistant Publisher of "The Americus Newspaper", and newly elected state legislator, appeared to be the individuals spearheading the grand jury action. PACE stated that HORACE ODUM, Foreman of the grand jury, was also possibly involved. PACE further stated that CRISP and BLAIR were the two individuals believed by him to have been discussing the aforementioned rumors. PACE stated he was aware that two Special Agents of the FBI were present in the Sumter County Courthouse on November 30, 1962, when the grand jury was considering this resolution. PACE asked the grand jury if they desired to talk to these Special Agents concerning the rumors, and the grand jury declined.

In this connection, PHILLIP SIDNEY SMITH was interviewed by FBI Agents on October 2, and 4, 1962, in connection with the church burnings and shootings into Negro homes. SMITH, however, is an adult, and not a juvenile. He signed a waiver to be interviewed with the polygraph in this matter, and was so interviewed. His mother was aware that he was being interviewed.

Further, Mrs. G. M. DAVENPORT, Manager of the Credit Bureau of Americus, advised on December 17, 1962, that all of her associations with FBI Agents have been most cordial, and pleasant. She added that she has the highest regard for the FBI, and could make no complaint whatsoever concerning any FBI employee, and added that there has never been any incident where an FBI employee was rude to her.

Judge THOMAS O. MARSHAL of the Southwestern Circuit advised on December 17, 1962, that he was amazed at the resolution passed by the Sumter County Grand Jury, and he considered it improper. He added, however, that he has no control over grand jury action, and was not in a position to counteract this resolution since it may be interpreted as judicial interference with grand jury activity. Judge MARSHAL stated he has the highest regard for the FBI, and did not approve of this resolution.

RE: RACIAL SITUATION,
ALBANY, GEORGIA

CHARLES R. CRISP, Vice President, Bank of Commerce, Americus, Georgia, advised on December 18, 1962, that he did not approve of the Attorney General ordering the FBI to investigate the burning of Negro churches and shooting into Negro homes inasmuch as these matters are strictly local, and not Federal in nature. CRISP stated that in his opinion, and in the opinion of other white citizens in the South Georgia area, the Attorney General ordered these investigations for the sole purpose of obtaining the Negro vote, and the FBI was being used as an instrument by the Attorney General for political purposes. CRISP was informed of the general nature of the Civil Rights and Election Law Statutes, and FBI and Departmental jurisdiction was explained to him. CRISP stated that at the present time there is considerable feeling among practically all of the white citizens in South Georgia against the current wave of agitation by Negroes and Negro groups for desegregation. He stated that most of the white citizens are opposed to and resent interference of any type, and particularly any type of Federal assistance to Negroes. He stated this general feeling possibly prompted the grand jury to act on rumor and hearsay, which resulted in this resolution.

CRISP stated he knew of no specific allegations which would make a basis for the grand jury action, but there were rumors in the area from unknown persons to the effect that the FBI searched cars illegally, and went into persons houses looking for pistols. Mr. CRISP was informed that FBI Agents did not at any time search any automobiles, and one residence was searched for guns after the owner executed a Consent to Search.

CRISP added that he did not know the source of any of the rumors, adding that they were merely talk in the community. He then stated that he is of the opinion the grand jury might have acted in haste without full consideration of all facts, and the grand jury should not have acted solely on hearsay and unfounded rumor as it did. CRISP stated he would be in favor of the grand jury passing a new resolution rescinding the prior resolution.

RE: RACIAL SITUATION,
ALBANY, GEORGIA

HORACE P. ODUM, Superintendent, South Georgia Trade Schools, Americus, Georgia, and Foreman of the Sumter County Grand Jury, advised in connection with this resolution that he did not recall any specific allegations made against the FBI. He stated his function as Foreman was to receive all matters presented, which must be in writing, and he would vote on these matters only in the event of a tie. ODUM stated that he was certain that no witnesses testified before the grand jury concerning the FBI, and was now of the opinion the grand jury might have acted hastily in passing this resolution. He stated he did recall that juror WILLIAM E. BLAIR handed him the resolution, which criticized the FBI.

WILLIAM E. BLAIR, Assistant Publisher, Americus, Georgia "Times-Recorder", and newly elected State Legislator, advised on December 18, 1962, that he prepared and typed the resolution inasmuch as at that moment it reflected his feeling in this matter. He stated the basis for this feeling was the white citizens of South Georgia were being placed in a bad light from a world-wide standpoint because of the Department of Justice ordering the FBI to make extensive investigations of Negro church burnings and shootings into Negro houses for the purpose of obtaining the Negro vote. He stated that the white citizens in the South have been dealing with the Negroes for over one hundred years, and while he realizes it is necessary to concede additional rights to them, it is the responsibility of the South to handle these matters rather than the Federal Government. He also stated that it appears that a Negro can call a high government official in Washington and get an FBI investigation into controversial racial matters, and added that this is a source of continual annoyance to the white citizens.

Mr. BLAIR was informed of the jurisdiction of the Department of Justice and the FBI in these matters, and the general nature of the Civil Rights and Election Law Statutes. Mr. BLAIR stated that he had no specific information of any matter concerning flagrant violations or unethical practices of any FBI Agent other than what he stated above. He stated that the resolution was passed in extreme haste during the last confusing hours of the grand jury without any testimony from witnesses or without full consideration of grand jury members. He again stated that it was the general opinion of the white citizens of the area that the FBI should not investigate racial matters, but they should be left to local law enforcement.

RE: RACIAL SITUATION,

Mr. BLAIR stated he realizes the grand jury was in error, and he regrets being the instigator of the resolution. He stated he intends to immediately discuss this matter with grand jury foreman ODUM and juror CRISP. BLAIR was informed that it would be proper for him to take all possible action to correct the record. He stated he would do everything in his power to accomplish this.

Mr. Lloyd Bailey

Dear Mr. Bailey:

I have been asked to reply to your letter of December 12, 1962, addressed to the Attorney General.

I appreciate your concern for the protection of constitutional rights of all citizens and I am aware of the basic humanitarian tenants of your faith. I concur in your sentiments.

Although many persons in all sections of our country would like to see the situation in Albany cleared up, the solution to local problems there cannot be resolved by action of the executive branch of the Government alone. In so far as the Federal Government is concerned, a solution to local problems by executive action is made difficult by the inherent nature of our federal system. In many areas of the law the Federal Government, as such, has no legal authority to seek redress through the courts to rectify a wrong done to an individual citizen. In any number of situations where any individual is being deprived of a constitutional right, he himself must initiate an action in court to obtain relief, the Federal Government having no standing to prosecute a lawsuit in his behalf.

The FBI, as well as other members of the legal staff of the Department of Justice, have examined complaints of violations of federal law arising in Albany. Although some of these complaints indicate the complainant might have grounds for a civil action against the person or persons who wronged him or the wrongdoer might be prosecuted under state law, no clear violation of a federal statute has been shown where we have not taken affirmative action to correct such violation.

Most of the issues involving alleged unlawful segregation in Albany are now before the United States District Court for the Middle District of Georgia. When the Federal Court renders its decision concerning the issues before it, it may be presumed that the constitutional rights of all Albany citizens will be fully protected. This will be in keeping with the processes of our legal system, which sometimes works slowly, but through which the law is finally preserved. (The United States filed a friend-of-the-court brief in one of these cases.)

Action by the Department of Justice in Albany, like in any other place, must have as a basis a probable violation of federal law. Our responsibility is to act only when we have legal authority to do so. The Federal Government should not prosecute any federal or civil action unless, after an independent investigation, it is clear that there is probable cause to believe that a federal law has been violated.

May I express my thanks and that of the Attorney General for your interest in trying to find a solution to the problems that now plague Albany, Georgia.

Sincerely,

BURKE MARSHALL

The Honorable Robert F. Kennedy
Attorney General
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Sir:

As members of the Scarsdale Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers) committed to the recognition of the dignity of the individual and his right to equal protection under the law not only as a tenet of our faith, but as a fundamental American democratic right, we are deeply distressed to learn of the action of local authorities in Albany, Georgia, in depriving colored people of their rights of free speech, assembly and petition.

A number of occurrences in Albany have come to our attention which clearly indicate violations by local officers of the constitutional rights of Negroes. We therefore urge prosecutions under Federal law for such violations, and also an investigation by Special Agents, in no way encumbered by relations with local authorities, to prevent and also investigate violations of constitutional rights.

By direction of the Scarsdale Friends Meeting, assembled in meeting for business December 19, 1962.

None of the seven arrested allege any mistreatment whatsoever at the hands of Albany PD. All seven of those arrested were carrying identical signs. Each carried his sign on his chest and on his back. Signs were tied together with string and are being held at the Albany PD. The signs are on white cardboard with red letters and measure 14" by 22". Each sign reads as follows: "Close your account with segregation! Open an account with freedom! Don't buy downtown or midtown. Your freedom and the freedom of your children depends on how wisely you spend your dollar. Every dollar spent in downtown or midtown Albany is a dollar spent to finance segregation and discrimination. Protect your rights. Register to vote now. The Albany Movement."

LAURIE PRITCHETT, Chief, Albany Police Department, Albany, Georgia, was interviewed at his office and furnished the following information from his personal knowledge and from his files:

The following listed three juveniles and four adults, all Negro males, were arrested by Officers of his department at 4:35 p.m., December 6, 1962, while picketing and carrying signs in the downtown area of Albany, Georgia. These signs urged not to shop in downtown and midtown and urged voter registration.

All seven of these individuals were charged with failure to obey an officer. The details of each complaint allege that each of them was carrying a sign, gives the location where he was when arrested, and states that each was creating a general disturbance while a crowd was gathering. The complaint alleges that each was asked to leave by officers and refused to do so.

The three juveniles have been turned over to the Dougherty County Juvenile Officer. These three individuals gave signed statements to CLYDE HARROLD, the Albany Police Department Juvenile Officer. In the statements they advised they were paid $6 each by Rev. JOSEPH SMITH of Albany, Georgia. The juveniles in their statements allege SMITH told them to picket between 4:00 and 6:30 p.m., ignore police, and if arrested he would get them out.

A warrant has been issued by Justice of the Peace G. S. THORNTON for the arrest of JOSEPH SMITH, charging him with contributing to the delinquency of three minors.

The four adults are being held in the Albany City Jail in lieu of $27 bond each. CHARLIE TURNER is 17 years of age and under Georgia law is an adult. He is one of the four being held in jail.

The records reflect the following data concerning these arrests:

Date December 11, 19621

LAURIE PRITCHETT, Chief, Albany Police Department, Albany, Georgia, was interviewed in his office.

He was advised of the nature of this investigation and that the investigation was being conducted at the specific request of the Attorney General of the United States.

Chief PRITCHETT advised the following:

The signs which the seven pickets were carrying when they were arrested are being maintained in the custody of the Albany Police Department. Assistant Chief of Police LESLIE SUMMERFORD has custody of these signs. The warrant which is outstanding for Rev. JOSEPH SMITH's arrest has not been served as yet since the Police Department has been unable to locate him.

Chief PRITCHETT was informed by Assistant Chief SUMMERFORD and Officer STANFIELD that at the time of the arrest of these seven individuals, a large crowd in the neighborhood of 200 people was gathering at each site of arrest. Several white people had complained to the arresting officers that photographs had been taken of the pickets and that they were photographed along with the pickets. These individuals objected to this. Chief PRITCHETT was informed that considerable tension was mounting in the area of each of the arrest sites.

The three juveniles were released on December 6, 1962, to Dougherty County Juvenile Officer, ROYACE B. HINSON, and will appear before the Juvenile Judge in Albany, Georgia, on December 10, 1962. Date December 11, 1962

LESLIE SUMMERFORD, Assistant Chief, Albany Police Department, Albany, Georgia, was interviewed at the Albany Police Department and furnished the following information:

On the afternoon of December 6, 1962, he was walking in the downtown area of Albany with Officer C. H. STANFIELD. They were walking in the 100 block of North Washington and in the 200 block of Broad. They observed four pickets in the 100 block of North Washington and three pickets in the 200 block of Broad. These individuals were carrying signs on their chests and on their backs which urged people not to shop in downtown or midtown Albany and also urged them to register to vote. This is the Christmas season in Albany, and the 100 block of North Washington and the 200 block of Broad are the primary shopping areas of downtown Albany. More shoppers are in this area at this time of year than normal times. The seven individuals who were picketing picketed for some 20 to 30 minutes, and a considerable crowd was gathering in those areas. Assistant Chief SUMMERFORD estimated the crowd in the 100 block of North Washington as about 200 people and the crowd in the 200 block of Broad between North Washington and Jackson as around 300 people. The 100 block of North Washington runs between Pine and Broad.

Assistant Chief SUMMERFORD observed Reverend JOSEPH SMITH photographing the pickets. Several white persons approached him and complained to him personally that they objected to having their photographs taken with these pickets. He did not have their names. He also observed several white people approach Officer STANFIELD and complain to him about having their photographs taken with pickets.

In the opinion of Assistant Chief SUMMERFORD, considerable tension was mounting in the area, and accordingly he approached each picket individually, identified himself as a police officer and told the individual that he was creating a disturbance and would have to leave; otherwise, he would be arrested. Assistant Chief SUMMERFORD told each of them he would be back in a few minutes after giving them an opportunity to leave. Assistant Chief SUMMERFORD pointed out he was wearing his uniform at the time as was Officer STANFIELD. He then walked away for about five minutes and was accompanied by Officer STANFIELD. The seven individuals continued to picket, and he returned and placed each of them under arrest after first asking them if they had understood what he had told them and being told that the individual did. He charged each of the individuals with failure to obey an officer. There was no incident connected with any of the arrests.

Assistant Chief SUMMERFORD advised he has in his custody the signs which each of the seven pickets was carrying. He made them available for observation and examination. Each of the signs was found to be identical. The signs were bound together with string, and each individual wore a cardboard sign on his chest and his back. The signs are made of white cardboard with red letters and measure 14" x 22". Each sign reads as follows: "Close your account with segregation! Open an account with freedom! Don't buy downtown or midtown." There is a line drawn under this statement, and the sign continues to read as follows: "Your freedom and the freedom of your children depends on how wisely you spend your dollar." There is a line drawn under this statement, and the sign continues to read as follows: "Every dollar spent in downtown or midtown Albany is a dollar spent to finance segregation and discrimination." A line is drawn under this statement, and the sign continues to read as follows: "Protect your rights. Register to vote now." There is a line drawn under this statement, and the sign continues to read as follows: "The Albany Movement." There is a line drawn under this statement, and this concludes the wording on the signs.

Officer C. H. STANFIELD, Albany Police Department, Albany, Georgia, was interviewed at the Albany Police Department and furnished the following information:

On the afternoon of December 6, 1962, he was patrolling in the downtown area of Albany and was accompanied by Assistant Chief of Police LESLIE SUMMERFORD. He and Assistant Chief SUMMERFORD observed four individuals picketing in the 100 block of North Washington, between Pine and Broad, and three individuals picketing in the 200 block of Broad, between North Washington and Jackson. These individuals picketed for about thirty minutes. They were carrying signs on their chests and on their backs held together by string and the signs urged people not to shop in downtown or midtown Albany and urged them to register to vote. He observed Rev. JOSEPH SMITH photographing these pickets. Several white people came to him and complained about having their photographs taken with the pickets. He observed several white people speak to Assistant Chief SUMMERFORD and complain about having their photographs taken with pickets. Officer STANFIELD advised in his opinion the tension was mounting in the area. He estimated the crowd in each area of North Washington and of Broad at approximately 200 people in each area.

Assistant Chief SUMMERFORD approached each of these individuals, identified himself as a police officer, told them they were creating a disturbance and ordered them to leave. He told them he would be back in a few minutes and if they were not gone he would have to make a case against them. Officer STANFIELD was present with Assistant Chief SUMMERFORD, but SUMMERFORD did all of the talking.

Officer STANFIELD advised he and Assistant Chief SUMMERFORD walked away and returned to the area where the pickets were in approximately five minutes. They were still picketing and Assistant Chief SUMMERFORD asked them if they had understood his instructions to them. They told him they had and he then placed each of them under arrest, charging them with failure to obey an officer. The time of the arrests was 4:35 p.m.

"Albany, Georgia
December 8, 1962

"I, Eddie James Griffin, make the following free and voluntary statement to Joseph H. O'Rourke and Wilbur W. Seitzer who have identified themselves to me as Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. I have been advised this interview is in connection with an official investigation.

"I was born September 23, 1947, in Albany, Georgia. I reside at 1106 Newton Road, Albany, and I am in the ninth grade.

"On December 6, 1962, I was on my way to the movie and I met Charlie Turner, Dick Gay and 2 other boys, who I do not know. These other boys had signs and they said they were going picketing. I asked if I could have a sign and go with them. Shortly after, 4(3) and 4(3) came along from the movie and they asked if they could picket and asked us to wait for them. They came back and we all went to downtown Albany to picket. The sign read 'Don't buy downtown or midtown.' There was other writing on the sign but I do not remember what it was.

"Shortly after we started picketing a policeman came up to us and said he was giving us a chance to move on and if we did not move on he was going to arrest us. The policeman left and returned about 5 minutes later and arrested us for refusing to obey an officer. He wrote each of our names on the signs we were carrying and took us to the Albany City Jail.

"We were released from jail about 9:30 PM that same day and were brought home by the juvenile officer, Mr. Hinson.

CHARLIE CLYDE TURNER was interviewed at the Albany Police Department and furnished the following information:

He was arrested at 4:35 p.m., December 6, 1962, near the corner of North Washington and Broad where he was picketing. He was charged with failure to obey an officer and is in jail in lieu of a $27 bond.

TURNER could not recall the exact wording on the sign he was carrying; however, he did remember it had something to do with not buying in downtown or midtown and registering to vote.

He had been picketing for about 15 to 20 minutes at the time he was arrested. Six other individuals were arrested at the same time. He and three juveniles were picketing in the 100 Block of North Washington and three adults were picketing in the 200 Block of Broad.

During the early afternoon of December 6, 1962, he was at the residence of OTIS and EDDIE GRIFFIN, street name unknown to him. OTIS GRIFFIN told him, "The movement," meaning the Albany Movement, was going to picket that day. He decided he wanted to go and went to the Albany Movement Office at Madison and Mercer. He was then given two signs which he tied together with string. The signs were just alike and he wore one on his back and one on his chest. He was not paid any money to picket but was told by a woman in the Albany Movement Office that he would be given $6 for picketing between 4:00 and 6:30 p.m. This woman was a Negro female in her 30's or early 40's. She is slender built and is tall and has light brown complexion. It was his impression she is a school teacher. She told him he would also be paid $6 a day while he was in jail. He was instructed to be nonviolent in his activities. As best as he could recall this was about 3:00 p.m. on December 6, 1962. He was also told by this woman that "they" would get them out of jail, and it is his recollection that the Albany Movement is to get him out of jail on Monday, December 10, 1962.

TURNER does not have a regular job but stated the $6 was not the only reason he went to picket, although he doubts if he would have picketed had he not received any money. His prime reason for going along with the pickets was because his friend, EDDIE GRIFFIN, was going.

TURNER does not know Rev. JOSEPH SMITH by name.

While picketing, he was approached by two police officers in uniform. One of the officers told him he would have to leave or he would be arrested since he was creating a disturbance. He did not say anything to the officer nor did he leave. The officer told him he was coming back in a few minutes and if he was still picketing he would arrest him. TURNER continued to picket in the 100 Block of North Washington and about five minutes later the two officers returned and placed him under arrest. He was not mistreated in any way at the hands of the Albany Police Department.

TURNER was unable to estimate the size of the crowd in the area where he was picketing.

TURNER refused to furnish a signed statement.

RALPH JACKSON was interviewed at the Albany City Jail where he is held in lieu of $27 bond. He furnished the following information:

He was arrested at 4:35 p.m. in the 200 Block of Broad Street and charged with failure to obey an officer. At the time of his arrest he was picketing in the 200 Block of Broad Street. He and two other individuals were picketing in that block and four individuals were picketing in the 100 Block of North Washington Street. JACKSON is unemployed.

On the afternoon of December 6, 1962, shortly before 3:00 p.m., he went by the office of the motor pool of the Albany Movement located on South Madison Street. He observed RICHARD GAY, SILAS MC COGGLE, and CHARLIE TURNER in the office and several other individuals, whose names he does not know, but who were arrested at the same time as he was and charged with failure to obey an officer. He found out these individuals were going picketing that afternoon and he decided to go along with them. They obtained their signs at the motor pool office of the Albany Movement and were given their signs by Rev. SMITH. He does not know Rev. SMITH's first name. There were seven individuals who obtained signs in the motor pool office. Each was given two signs and they tied the signs together with string and wore one on their back and one on their chest. The signs were all just alike and he does not remember exactly what the signs said but they did mention not to shop in midtown or downtown.

Rev. SMITH instructed them to stay on the edge of the sidewalk closest to the street while picketing. They were told to go to the downtown section of Albany. He does not remember whether Rev. SMITH told them specifically where to go in the downtown section. He was told not to talk to anyone except the police. Rev. SMITH told him he would be paid $6 for picketing between 4:00 and 6:30 p.m. and $6 for each day he spent in jail and that he would get out on Monday, December 10, 1962.

Rev. SMITH did not say anything about not being paid if he left when ordered by the police. The $6 was one of the reasons why he decided to go picketing since he does not have a job.

JACKSON advised he does not know if the others were individually told the same thing as he was by Rev. SMITH, however, all seven of the individuals who picketed were standing together when Rev. SMITH was talking to him. He walked from the Albany Movement Office to the downtown section of Albany and was accompanied by RICHARD GAY and SILAS MC COGGLE. These are the two individuals who picketed with him in the 200 Block of Broad. He did not know how the other four individuals got to the downtown section.

JACKSON picketed for about 20 to 30 minutes in the 200 Block of Broad before he was approached by two officers. He observed the officers speak to RICHARD GAY and SILAS MC COGGLE. One of the officers told him they were creating a disturbance and he would have to leave or he would make a case against him. The officer told him he was going away for a few minutes and would come back and if he was still there he would be arrested. JACKSON continued to picket and in a few minutes Assistant Chief SUMMERFORD and officer, both wearing uniforms, came up to him and placed him under arrest. He has not been mistreated in any way by the Albany Police Department. JACKSON did not notice how large the crowd was but did state that there were a number of people in the downtown section shopping.

JACKSON refused to furnish a signed statement.

SILAS A. McCOGGLE was interviewed at the Albany Police Department and furnished the following information:

He was arrested at 4:35 p.m., December 6, 1962, and charged with failure to obey an officer. He is in jail in lieu of $27.00 bond. McCOGGLE was picketing at the time of his arrest in the 200 block of Broad. He was carrying a sign on his chest and back. He could not remember the exact wording of the sign but did recall that it had something to this effect: "If you really want to be free don't buy segregation. Do not shop downtown or midtown."

McCOGGLE advised he has two prior arrests in Albany for demonstrations and that the cases have not been disposed of as yet. He related he is a friend of RICHARD GAY and met GAY on the street in Albany on the afternoon of December 6, 1962. GAY asked him if he was still interested in the Albany Movement, and he told him he was. GAY asked him if he wanted to picket that afternoon, and he replied he did. They then went to the Grand Terrace Restaurant in the 300 block of Highland, and he, RICHARD GAY and RALPH JACKSON were given signs by a man whose name he does not know. He described this individual as a Negro male, about 30, 6'1", 175 pounds, light brown skin. The signs they were given were the signs they wore while picketing. All of the signs were just alike. As best as he could recall, this was about 3:20 p.m. He denied being paid any money or promised any money to picket. The three of them walked from Highland to Washington and Broad. Their signs were turned over until they got to Washington and Broad. The three of them then picketed in the 200 block of Broad between Washington and Jackson about eight paces apart. They had been picketing about 40 minutes when two police officers came up and spoke to RALPH JACKSON, then to McCOGGLE and then to GAY. One of the officers asked each of them if they knew who he was, and each replied, "Yes, sir," meaning that they knew he was an officer but not that they knew him as an individual. The officers were in uniform. The one who spoke to him said that he was telling them to leave and that if they did not he would have to make a case against them. The officers then left, and they continued to picket. While he was picketing he observed four other individuals picketing on Washington between Broad and Pine. About five minutes later the officers returned and arrested the three of them on Broad. He was not mistreated in any manner and elected to stay in jail in lieu of his bond of his own volition. McCOGGLE plans to stay in jail until his case is called to trial. He was unable to estimate the size of the crowd. McCOGGLE declined to furnish a signed statement.

1Date December 11, 1962

RICHARD LENZIE GAY, JR., was interviewed at the Albany Police Department. He is in jail in lieu of $27.00 bond following his arrest December 6, 1962, on a charge of failure to obey an officer.

GAY furnished the following information:

On the afternoon of December 6, 1962, he was with RALPH JACKSON and SILAS McCOGGLE. They met at the Shiloh Baptist Church in Albany, and several other individuals were present. CHARLIE TURNER was also at the Shiloh Baptist Church. They decided to go picketing.

It was pointed out to GAY that his statement was in conflict with information previously received in this investigation. He was told he did not have to furnish any information but that if he did furnish information it should be the truth. He was advised of the provisions of Section 1001 of Title 18. GAY advised he would decline to discuss the matter any further without consulting with an attorney. The interview was terminated.

Mr. Burke Marshall
Assistant Attorney General

December 10, 1962

Director, FBI

RACIAL SITUATION
ALBANY, GEORGIA
RACIAL MATTERS

This will confirm information furnished to Mr. Jerome K. Heilbron of your Division on December 9, 1962. Mr. Heilbron on December 7, 1962, had requested that the details concerning the arrests of seven Negroes in Albany, Georgia, on December 6, 1962, be ascertained and that the Negroes themselves be interviewed.

All seven persons arrested on December 6, 1962, were interviewed. None of those arrested would estimate the size of the crowd. Eddie James Griffin stated "There were a lot of people standing in the doorways of the stores of the area we were picketing at the time of our arrests."

Assistant Chief of Police of Albany, Georgia, Leslie Summerford, one of the arresting officers, stated there were approximately 200 people gathered in the block of Washington between Broad and Pine Streets when four persons were arrested in that block and there were around 300 people gathered in the block of Broad Street between Washington and Jackson at the time three were arrested in that block. Officer C. H. Stanfield, the other arresting officer, estimated the size of the crowd in each area of arrest at about 200 persons. Most of these people were white. These two blocks constitute the primary shopping areas of downtown Albany.

According to Officers Summerford and Stanfield, Reverend Joseph Smith was making photographs of the pickets and several white persons complained to the officers about having their photographs taken with pickets. Both officers stated there was considerable tension.

Mr. Burke Marshall

Assistant Chief of Police Summerford approached each of the seven pickets, identified himself as a police officer, told them they were creating a disturbance and asked them to leave. He told them if they did not leave he would have to make a case against them. Officers Summerford and Stanfield walked away and each of the seven persons continued to picket. About five minutes later, Officers Summerford and Stanfield returned and arrested each of the seven. The charge was "failure to obey an officer." Both officers were in uniform.

The details of each complaint alleges that each of the persons arrested was carrying a sign. The complaint gives the location and states that each was creating a general disturbance while a crowd was gathering. The complaints allege that each was asked to leave by officers and refused to do so.

The details of the arrest are corroborated by each of the seven arrested except for Richard Gay who refused to discuss the matter with Special Agents of this Bureau without consulting his attorney.

Eddie James Griffin, 4(3)
4(3) juveniles, each gave a written statement to Clyde Harrold, Albany Police Department Juvenile Officer, to the effect that they were promised six dollars for picketing by Reverend Joseph Smith. These juveniles gave Bureau Agents signed statements. Griffin denied to Bureau Agents being promised or paid any money to picket. 4(3)
4(3) in his statement to Bureau Agents, sets forth that he, and Griffin went to the office of the Albany Movement the day after their release, December 7, 1962, and were paid by checks made out to each of them in the amount of six dollars.

Charlie Turner, age 17, one of those arrested, an adult under Georgia law, stated he went to the office of the Albany Movement on December 6, 1962, and was told by a Negro woman, believed to be a school teacher, that he would be paid six dollars to picket and six dollars for each day he was in jail and that "they would get him out." He has not received any money as yet and refused to give a signed statement.

Mr. Burke Marshall

Ralph Jackson, another of those arrested, stated he was told by Reverend Mr. Smith in the Motor Pool Office of the Albany Movement that he would be paid six dollars to picket, six dollars for each day in jail and "they would get them out on Monday." Jackson claims that all seven of those arrested were present when Reverend Mr. Smith told him this. He declined to furnish a signed statement.

Silas A. McCoggie denied being offered any money to picket.

The seven persons arrested advised that they were not mistreated in the hands of the Albany Police Department.

All seven of those arrested were carrying identical signs. Each carried a sign on his chest and on his back. The signs are on white cardboard with red letters and measure fourteen by twenty-two inches. The signs are being held at the Albany Police Department. The signs read as follows:

"Close your account with segregation!
Open an account with freedom!"

"Don't buy downtown or midtown."

"Your freedom and the freedom of your children depends on how wisely you spend your dollar. Every dollar spent in downtown or midtown is a dollar spent to finance segregation and discrimination."

"Protect your rights, register to vote now."

"The Albany Movement."

Our Atlanta Office has advised that the Sunday edition of the "Atlanta Journal-Constitution" for December 8, 1963, carried an article entitled, "Albany Negroes to Carry Rights Complaint to Capitol" in which it is stated that a long-standing complaint of the Negro community in Albany is to be carried to the U. S. Department of Justice this week. The complaint involves the part played by this

Bureau in the Albany civil rights movement. The Negroes identified in the article as coming to Washington are Marion Page, Secretary of the Albany Movement, Negro attorney C. B. King and Dr. W. G. Anderson. The article indicates they are coming to Washington for a conference with Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall. Dr. Anderson is quoted as saying that Negro grievances stem from "apparent fruitless and endless investigation of local FBI Agents in 'case after case' involving civil rights here." The article points out that the only arrests made by the Government during the year came when a white man attacked an FBI Agent.

The article sets forth that the Federal Government has been inactive or reluctant to act in the controversial civil rights trouble where more than 1,200 Negroes have been arrested in the past year.

The article mentions that the reaction of Justice Department officials to these criticisms has been silence, and when asked by a reporter what he privately thought of the (Howard) Zinn report, a Departmental official replied, "They just don't know what we've been doing down here." The Zinn report, "Albany, A Study in National Responsibility," was published by the Southern Regional Council and in it Zinn, a history professor at Spelman College, Atlanta, alleges that Albany Negroes mistrust local FBI Agents.

Zinn has been reported by informants who have furnished reliable information in the past to have been a member of the Communist Party in New York during the years 1949 to 1953. He recently participated in demonstrations in Atlanta protesting the President's policy during the recent Cuban crisis. In this connection, Mr. Heilbron indicated that he was aware of the Zinn report.

As you are aware, complete details concerning all developments in relation to racial demonstrations and racial issues in connection with Albany and its environs were furnished to the Department on a daily basis during the height of the demonstrations from July until September, 1962.

Mr. Burke Marshall

All investigation requested by the Department in connection with these matters has been promptly and vigorously completed and the results furnished to the Department.

Additional developments pertaining to the situation at Albany, Georgia, will be brought to your attention as they are received.

This will confirm information furnished to Mr. Jerome K. Heilbron of your Division on December 9, 1962. Mr. Heilbron on December 7, 1962, had requested that the details concerning the arrests of seven Negroes in Albany, Georgia, on December 6, 1962, be ascertained and that the Negroes themselves be interviewed.

All seven persons arrested on December 6, 1962, were interviewed. None of those arrested would estimate the size of the crowd. Eddie James Griffin stated "There were a lot of people standing in the doorways of the stores of the area we were picketing at the time of our arrests."

Assistant Chief of Police of Albany, Georgia, Leslie Summerford, one of the arresting officers, stated there were approximately 200 people gathered in the block of Washington between Broad and Pine Streets when four persons were arrested in that block and there were around 300 people gathered in the block of Broad Street between Washington and Jackson at the time three were arrested in that block. Officer C. H. Stanfield, the other arresting officer, estimated the size of the crowd in each area of arrest at about 200 persons. Most of these people were white. These two blocks constitute the primary shopping areas of downtown Albany.

According to Officers Summerford and Stanfield, Reverend Joseph Smith was making photographs of the pickets and several white persons complained to the officers about having their photographs taken with pickets. Both officers stated there was considerable tension.

Assistant Chief of Police Summerford approached each of the seven pickets, identified himself as a police officer, told them they were creating a disturbance and asked them to leave. He told them if they did not leave he would have to make a case against them. Officers Summerford and Stanfield walked away and each of the seven persons continued to picket. About five minutes later, Officers Summerford and Stanfield returned and arrested each of the seven. The charge was "failure to obey an officer." Both officers were in uniform.

The details of each complaint allege that each of the persons arrested was carrying a sign. The complaint gives the location and states that each was creating a general disturbance while a crowd was gathering. The complaints allege that each was asked to leave by officers and refused to do so.

The details of the arrest are corroborated by each of the seven arrested except for Richard Gay who refused to discuss the matter with Special Agents of this Bureau without consulting his attorney.

Eddie James Griffin, 4(3)
4(3), juveniles, each gave a written statement to Clyde Harrold, Albany Police Department Juvenile Officer, to the effect that they were promised six dollars for picketing by Reverend Joseph Smith. These juveniles gave Bureau Agents signed statements. Griffin denied to Bureau Agents being promised or paid any money to picket. 4(3) in his statement to Bureau Agents, sets forth that he, 4(3) and Griffin went to the office of the Albany Movement the day after their release, December 7, 1962, and were paid by checks made out to each of them in the amount of six dollars.

Charlie Turner, age 17, one of those arrested, an adult under Georgia law, stated he went to the office of the Albany Movement on December 6, 1962, and was told by a Negro woman, believed to be a school teacher, that he would be paid six dollars to picket and six dollars for each day he was in jail and that "they would get him out." He has not received any money as yet and refused to give a signed statement.

Mr. Burke Marshall

Ralph Jackson, another of those arrested, stated he was told by Reverend Mr. Smith in the Motor Pool Office of the Albany Movement that he would be paid six dollars to picket, six dollars for each day in jail and "they would get them out on Monday." Jackson claims that all seven of those arrested were present when Reverend Mr. Smith told him this. He declined to furnish a signed statement.

Silas A. McCoggle denied being offered any money to picket.

The seven persons arrested advised that they were not mistreated in the hands of the Albany Police Department.

All seven of those arrested were carrying identical signs. Each carried a sign on his chest and on his back. The signs are on white cardboard with red letters and measure fourteen by twenty-two inches. The signs are being held at the Albany Police Department. The signs read as follows:

"Close your account with segregation!
Open an account with freedom!"

"Don't buy downtown or midtown."

"Your freedom and the freedom of your children depends on how wisely you spend your dollar. Every dollar spent in downtown or midtown is a dollar spent to finance segregation and discrimination."

Mr. Robert Kennedy
Attorney General
United States Department of Justice
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Kennedy:

This letter arises as a result of my concern over the treatment of citizens in Albany, Georgia.

I write to you because it is my understanding that it is a crime for local law enforcement offices to deliberately subject any inhabitant of any state to the deprivation of any rights, privileges or immunities secured or protected by the constitution and the laws of the United States.

I will refer you to the report of Mr. Howard Zinn, the chairman of the Department of History and Social Science at Spelman College, a report that was made to the Southern Regional Council.

In this report Mr. Zinn refers to an assault made on a Mr. C. B. King in the office of the sheriff of Dougherty County, an assault carried out by the sheriff himself. This incident has been described in an affidavit deposited with the Albany office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Mr. King is a Negro.

Also I would want you to know of my concern over the case of Mr. William Hansen. Mr. Hansen is a white man. I understand he had his jaw broken and some ribs broken again in the Dougherty County Jail.

Surely the continuence of such activities and the allowing of such crimes to go unpunished will call in question the good faith of the Federal Government in the area of civil rights.

RACIAL SITUATION
ALBANY, GEORGIA

Four unidentified ministers, all Negro, arrived Albany, Georgia, from New Jersey area, October 10, 1962, to participate in Albany Movement meetings. Mass meetings of Albany Movement were held night of October 10, 1962, at Shiloh Baptist Church and Union Baptist Church. PETER SEEGER, folk singer, staged concert at Shiloh Baptist Church. Ministers delivered religious-type addresses at Union Baptist Church.

Dr. WILLIAM G. ANDERSON, President, Albany Movement, and CHARLES SHERROD, Field Secretary, Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, addressed group at Shiloh Baptist Church, encouraging more donations for use in voters registration activities and denounced lack of attendance at Albany Movement meetings. Approximately 75 persons attended the concert conducted by PETER SEEGER. Approximately 175 persons attended the meeting at Union Baptist Church.

On the night of October 11, 1962, like meetings were held at the same two churches. PETER SEEGER appeared at the Union Baptist Church and the ministers appeared at the Shiloh Baptist Church. Approximately 60 people attended the meeting at the Shiloh Baptist Church and approximately 45 persons attended the meeting at the Union Baptist Church.

LOUIS F. BUDENZ, self-admitted former Communist Party functionary and former Managing Editor of the "Daily Worker," advised on June 30, 1950, that he had learned that PETER SEEGER was a member of the Communist Party in 1949.

On December 13, 1954, JOHN LAUTNER, a Communist Party member for over 20 years, who at the time of his expulsion from the Communist Party in 1950, was Chairman of the New York State Communist Party Review Commission, advised that he knew PETER SEEGER as a Communist Party member from 1947 to 1949. RACIAL SITUATION
RACIAL MATTERS

The Albany Movement held a meeting last night at the site of the Mount Olive Baptist Church, Sasser, Georgia. This church was destroyed by fire on September 9, 1962. Approximately seventy-five persons attended and no incidents are known to have occurred.

Information has been received to the effect that the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, will hold a meeting to initiate new members on September 22, 1962. The meeting is to be held in or near Albany, Georgia. It has been reported that two hundred applications for membership were turned in at a Klan rally held near Albany on September 3, 1962, and that over sixty applications have been received since that time.

The Sheriff's Office, Terrell County, Georgia, advised on September 19, 1962, that <sup>4(3)</sup> [redacted] was still in the Terrell County Jail. <sup>4(3)</sup> [redacted] who is sixteen years of age, is one of the four subjects charged with the burning of the I Hope Baptist Church on September 17, 1962. Newspaper articles dated September 18, 1962, reported that he had been released to his mother.

All four subjects are to appear today in Superior Court at Dawson, Georgia, to face state arson charges. At the request of local authorities we are furnishing them the confessions we obtained and FBI Agents will be available to testify if such testimony is needed.

We will continue to advise the Department promptly of pertinent developments.

RACIAL MATTERS

There was no activity of the Albany Movement on September 18, 1962, and no racial incidents or arrests occurred in Albany, Georgia.

It was previously reported that the Albany Movement would hold a mass meeting on September 18, 1962, at the site of a burned church in Sasser, Georgia. This meeting is now scheduled for the evening of September 19, 1962.

The four individuals who confessed to the burning of the I Hope Baptist Church on September 17, 1962, were arraigned yesterday on state arson charges. Each one waived his right to a commitment hearing and was remanded to the Terrell County Jail in lieu of a twenty-five hundred dollar bond. Each subject indicated a desire to plead guilty and pleas will be entered before Superior Court Judge Walter Geer, Dawson, Georgia, on September 20, 1962.

We are continuing to vigorously press the investigations concerning other churches which have been burned in Georgia and houses which have been shot into in Georgia and Mississippi.

Further pertinent developments will be brought to the attention of the Department promptly.

It is recommended that the above case be closed for the following reasons:

The facts are fully set out in the attached memoranda, and the investigative report of July 27, 1962. Briefly, it was alleged the Sheriff and his Deputy of Camilla, Georgia, had beaten and kicked a pregnant Negro lady who was carrying a small child in her arms.

Tension between the races had been high for several days in Camilla. On July 21 and 22, 1962, some 50 - 75 Negroes had caused disturbances. On July 23, the incident involved here occurred.

It appears that 50 to 60 white men were congregated around the jail at about the time some 15 to 20 Negroes came to visit the young juveniles incarcerated there. Not being able to enter the jail at the time, they talked with the inmates from across the yard. Shortly, 25 to 30 white men began moving over to the fence. A report reached the sheriff that the whites had guns and pistols and were getting heated up. The sheriff told his deputy to ask the Negroes to leave. All obeyed except the victim who lingered and allegedly cursed the deputy.

Several disinterested bystanders substantiate the version given by the sheriff and his deputy that the victim fell when she swung loose from their grasp as they were leading her to the parking lot. These witnesses also say the officers did not kick victim.

With a hundred people milling around the jail, divided into two groups by races and with a report the whites had fire arms and were heated up, the sheriff was justified in asking the Negroes to leave to preserve the peace.

It is unlikely that additional interviews would disclose any credible witnesses from the crowd. Those not contacted would no doubt favor the police. Victim received no serious injuries. The Assistant United States Attorney is of the opinion the case has no prosecutive merit. In the circumstances, I believe the case should be closed.

RACIAL MATTERS

No racial incidents or arrests were reported in Albany, Georgia, yesterday.

A mass meeting of the Albany Movement was held last night at the Friendship Baptist Church. The meeting reportedly was addressed by Dr. W. G. Anderson who encouraged the Negroes to continue their boycott of Albany merchants. Dr. Anderson also advocated increased registration of Negroes for voting.

An announcement was made of an Albany Movement meeting to be held on the night of September 18, 1962, at the site of a burned church in Sasser, Georgia. The church was not further identified but it is noted that we are investigating the burning of the Mount Olive Baptist Church which was destroyed by fire at Sasser on September 9, 1962.

Marvin Allen Milner, Melvin Earl Roland, 4(3) and Glen Roland, all of whom are white, confessed to FBI Agents that they burned the I Hope Baptist Church in Terrell County, Georgia, on September 17, 1962. When questioned as to motive they explained that they didn't like the idea of white people and Negroes living together. This was in reference to white members of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee who have been in the area to encourage Negroes to register for voting and who have stayed in Negro homes.

Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall advised that there was no basis for Federal prosecution in the above case. The facts were therefore made available to Joe M. Ray, Solicitor General, Papaula Circuit, Cuthbert, Georgia. In accordance with Mr. Ray's request the subjects were turned over to Sheriff Z. T. Mathews of Terrell County for state prosecution on arson charges.

The Attorney General

The Sheriff's Office, Walton County, Georgia, has advised that the Good Hope Baptist Church, Good Hope, Georgia, burned at approximately 12:50 A.M., September 16, 1962. This was a Negro church.

Sheriff Jim Haralson made an on-the-scene investigation. Witnesses told the Sheriff that the fire started near the roof and an official of the electric company expressed the opinion that the fire resulted from old wiring which may have been frayed by squirrels. It is believed that there was a nest of squirrels near the roof of the church.

The church has been described as being of pine construction, more than one hundred years old and tinder-dry. It is located approximately one hundred and sixty miles from Albany, Georgia.

Sheriff Haralson was advised by Negro and white residents in the vicinity of the church who were awake at the time that they did not observe anyone in the vicinity of the church or hear any vehicles prior to the fire.

Mr. J. Jones, minister of Good Hope Baptist Church, advised the Sheriff that the wiring needed renewing badly and he had no reason to believe the fire resulted from anything other than accidental causes.

There reportedly have been no voter registration meetings at the church. The Sheriff states that racial harmony exists in the area and that Negroes have no difficulty in voting in Walton County. The Sheriff is continuing his investigation and has requested assistance of the State Fire Marshal.

Since the facts do not indicate arson we have not instituted active investigation of the Good Hope Baptist Church burning. We have offered our cooperative facilities to the Sheriff and we are following the situation closely for any information of interest.

The Department will be promptly advised of further developments.

RACIAL SITUATION
ALBANY, GEORGIA
RACIAL MATTERS

The following additional developments have occurred in connection with the racial situation at Albany, Georgia, and vicinity.

On the evening of September 14, 1962, a meeting was held at the site of the Mount Olive Baptist Church, Sasser, Georgia, which was burned on September 9, 1962. Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., addressed the meeting of approximately 75 persons.

Reverend Mr. King announced that Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York offered to pay one third of the reconstruction cost of the Mount Olive Baptist Church, the Mount Mary Baptist Church, and the Shady Grove Baptist Church, which last church burned on August 15, 1962. In lieu of this, he offered to pay the total cost of rebuilding any one church.

Checks in the amount of $1,000 were given by Reverend Mr. King to each of the pastors of each of the above churches drawn on the account of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

According to a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, Reverend Mr. King made reference to the source concerning President Kennedy's press conference held on September 13, 1962, and stated, "I'm glad President Kennedy has finally taken a firm stand in the open on the Albany situation."

A meeting of the Albany Movement was held on the evening of September 14, 1962, at the Beulah Baptist Church, Albany, and Reverend Mr. King urged the approximately 75 persons attending to continue efforts to integrate schools and churches. He announced a $5,000 gift from Governor Rockefeller to rebuild Mount Olive Baptist and Mount Mary Baptist Churches.

The Attorney General

The candidacy of Mr. Slater King, who has been active in the Albany Movement, for a position on the City Commission of Albany, was urged by Reverend Mr. King.

A news release on September 14, 1962, indicated that 65 ministers from Hartford, Connecticut, are planning to visit Albany, Georgia, on October 25, 1962, to aid integration efforts at the request of Reverend Mr. King.

A mass meeting of Albany Movement is scheduled for Monday, September 17, 1962, at the Friendship Baptist Church, Albany.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, has advised that Dr. W. G. Anderson, President of the Albany Movement, will address a meeting to raise funds for the burned Albany area churches at Tindley Temple Methodist Church, Sunday, September 16, 1962, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

According to the source the Communist Party, Eastern District of Pennsylvania and Delaware is attempting to mobilize for the meeting.

Information was previously reported that Deputy Chief of Police, Denver Edgar Short, Jr., of Sasser, Georgia, allegedly ordered four members of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee to leave Sasser on September 4, 1962, and fired shots into the ground in the direction of the tires of their car. Deputy Chief of Police Short denied the shooting. A slug was subsequently recovered from the macadam road where the incident occurred and it has been determined by our laboratory that this slug is a .38 caliber lead revolver-type bullet. It is so mutilated and deformed, however, that it is impossible to make any determination as to the manufacturer, and there are no rifling impressions present for a ballistic comparison.

The Attorney General

Interviews with numerous persons in the Albany, Georgia, area are being conducted concerning the shooting which occurred into the residence of Mrs. Carolyn Daniels, Dawson, Georgia, on September 5, 1962, and in connection with the burning of the Mount Olive Baptist and Mount Mary Baptist Churches, Sasser, Georgia.

These matters are continuing to receive vigorous investigative attention.

The candidacy of Mr. Slater King, who has been active in the Albany Movement, for a position on the City Commission of Albany, was urged by Reverend Mr. King.

A news release on September 14, 1962, indicated that 65 ministers from Hartford, Connecticut, are planning to visit Albany, Georgia, on October 25, 1962, to aid integration efforts at the request of Reverend Mr. King.

A mass meeting of Albany Movement is scheduled for Monday, September 17, 1962, at the Friendship Baptist Church, Albany.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, has advised that Dr. W. G. Anderson, President of the Albany Movement, will address a meeting to raise funds for the burned Albany area churches at Tindley Temple Methodist Church, Sunday, September 16, 1962, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

According to the source the Communist Party, Eastern District of Pennsylvania and Delaware is attempting to mobilize for the meeting.

Information was previously reported that Deputy Chief of Police, Denver Edgar Short, Jr., of Sasser, Georgia, allegedly ordered four members of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee to leave Sasser on September 4, 1962, and fired shots into the ground in the direction of the tires of their car. Deputy Chief of Police Short denied the shooting. A slug was subsequently recovered from the macadam road where the incident occurred and it has been determined by our laboratory that this slug is a .38 caliber lead revolver-type bullet. It is so mutilated and deformed, however, that it is impossible to make any determination as to the manufacturer, and there are no rifling impressions present for a ballistic comparison.

Interviews with numerous persons in the Albany, Georgia, area are being conducted concerning the shooting which occurred into the residence of Mrs. Carolyn Daniels, Dawson, Georgia, on September 5, 1962, and in connection with the burning of the Mount Olive Baptist and Mount Mary Baptist Churches, Sasser, Georgia.

These matters are continuing to receive vigorous investigative attention.

The following additional developments have occurred in connection with the racial situation at Albany, Georgia, and vicinity.

On the evening of September 14, 1962, a meeting was held at the site of the Mount Olive Baptist Church, Sasser, Georgia, which was burned on September 9, 1962. Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., addressed the meeting of approximately 75 persons.

Reverend Mr. King announced that Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York offered to pay one third of the reconstruction cost of the Mount Olive Baptist Church, the Mount Mary Baptist Church, and the Shady Grove Baptist Church, which last church burned on August 15, 1962. In lieu of this, he offered to pay the total cost of rebuilding any one church.

Checks in the amount of $1,000 were given by Reverend Mr. King to each of the pastors of each of the above churches drawn on the account of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

According to a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, Reverend Mr. King made reference to the source concerning President Kennedy's press conference held on September 13, 1962, and stated, "I'm glad President Kennedy has finally taken a firm stand in the open on the Albany situation."

A meeting of the Albany Movement was held on the evening of September 14, 1962, at the Beulah Baptist Church, Albany, and Reverend Mr. King urged the approximately 75 persons attending to continue efforts to integrate schools and churches. He announced a $5,000 gift from Governor Rockefeller to rebuild Mount Olive Baptist and Mount Mary Baptist Churches.

ALBANY, GEORGIA
RACIAL MATTERS

The following additional developments have occurred in connection with general racial conditions at Albany, Georgia, and vicinity:

A youth meeting of the Albany Movement was held at the Shiloh Baptist Church, Albany, Georgia, on the morning of September 8, 1962. Approximately 30 persons attended. The picketers who were scheduled to appear on September 8, 1962, did not do so. No meetings were held on the evening of September 8, 1962.

A parade permit was granted by Albany city officials to the Albany Movement to honor Jackie Robinson, former baseball player, on his arrival in Albany on September 9, 1962.

Mr. Robinson arrived in Albany accompanied by Reverend Wyatt Tee Walker, Assistant to Reverend Martin Luther King, on September 9, 1962, and was received by a motorcade. Mr. Robinson, Reverend Mr. Walker and Dr. W. G. Anderson immediately left Albany and visited the ruins of Mount Mary Baptist Church and Mount Olive Baptist Church, Sasser, Georgia, after which they returned to Albany.

File The two churches mentioned above were observed by witnesses to be burning between 2:00 A.M. and 3:00 A.M. on September 9, 1962. Voter registration meetings have been held in the Mount Olive Baptist Church. Both churches were attended by Negroes.

Mr. Robinson addressed a meeting of the Albany Movement on the evening of September 9, 1962, at the Kiokee Baptist Church and encouraged those in attendance to register to vote.

The Attorney General

Concerning the burning of the two churches for Negroes, the following information has been received:

The State Fire Marshal, the Chief of Albany Fire Department E. E. Moody, Georgia Bureau of Investigation Agents and personnel of the Terrell County Sheriff's Office proceeded to the two churches and commenced investigations.

Mr. John L. Murphy of the Civil Rights Division was advised of the burning of the churches on September 9, 1962, and he requested a full investigation by this Bureau to determine if the churches were set on fire for the purpose of intimidating Negroes.

This investigation is presently being conducted.

Church officials of Mount Mary Baptist Church believe fire was set because Mount Olive Baptist Church four miles away burned at the same time. No voter registration meetings have been held at Mount Mary Church.

One Virgil E. Puckett, Route 4, Box 104, Dawson, Georgia, a white farmer whose residence is one mile from the church, interfered with interviews being conducted by Special Agents of this Bureau. He cursed and assaulted one Agent after the Agent had identified himself and stated that he was on official business. Puckett was arrested and charged with assaulting a Federal officer. A hearing will be held before a United States Commissioner in Albany, Georgia, on September 10, 1962.

Sheriff Zeke T. Mathews, Terrell County, has advised that if the fire at the Mount Mary Baptist Church was set, it was his opinion it was because of racial tension caused by white members of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee living with Negroes in Dawson, Georgia. He mentioned that resentment in the community is not due to actual registration of Negro voters.

Mr. E. E. Moody, Albany Fire Chief, and Joe Wheeler, Deputy State Fire Marshal, from examination, have not established the cause of the fire and no evidence of explosives has been found.

The Attorney General

The damage to Mount Mary Church has been estimated at $5,000. The church carried $2,500 insurance.

Church officials of Mount Olive Baptist Church, Sasser, Georgia, believe the church was set on fire because of recent voter registration meetings held at the church, but they have no evidence of this belief other than the circumstance of the other fire at Mount Mary Baptist Church.

The church was valued at $15,000 and is insured for $8,000. An insurance agent, James Webb, Cotton States Mutual Insurance Company, Dawson, advised an official of the church the insurance has been canceled since August 15, 1962.

Sheriff Mathews, Terrell County, made the same comment concerning this church that if it was set on fire, it was due to racial tension caused by white members of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee living with Negroes in Dawson, Georgia, and not due to registration of Negro voters in Terrell County.

Mr. E. E. Moody, Fire Chief, Albany, Georgia, and Mr. Joe Wheeler, Deputy State Fire Marshal also examined the ruins of this church and to date have not determined the cause of the fire. No evidence of explosives has been found.

Information concerning additional developments will be promptly furnished to the Department.
